Dedication

We dedicate this annual to our parents, the people who have sacrificed to send us to school. They gave us encouragement to finish school at times when we thought it wasn't worth while. They have opened up their hearts to all our troubles and opened their pocketbooks to all our needs. To them we owe our education. We dedicate this annual to the following people:

Mr. & Mrs. Buford Anderson
 Mr. & Mrs. Reuben Anderson
 Mr. & Mrs. Walker Beard
 Mr. & Mrs. C. D. Boone
 Mr. & Mrs. Leechy Buttrey
 Mrs. Susie Carter
 Mr. & Mrs. Wilbur Daubenspeck
 Mr. & Mrs. Claude W. Davidson

Class History

One fine day in August, 1949, 84 freshmen began their first experience here at Hillsboro High School. This was the largest freshman class in the history of H. H. S. Our class officers were: Martha Beard, President; Nola Mai Mangrum, Vice-President; Frances Mangrum, Secretary-Treasurer. Our sponsors were Mr. Giles and Mr. Stasaski. One of our pleasant experiences which we will all remember was our class picnic at Centennial Park.

When we began our sophomore year, 38 of our old group were missing, but there were three new faces to start the new year. Our sponsor was Mr. Stasaski. Officers were: Sydney Sullivan, President; Gerald Parham, Vice-President; Joe Ann Sweeney, Secretary-Treasurer. During our sophomore year we renewed our visit to Centennial Park for our class picnic. We also had a wonderful hayride in the fall.

Our Junior Class opened with 37 of our old group and one new face. Our sponsor once again was Mr. Stasaski and our officers were: Martha Beard, President; Harvey Buttrey, Vice-President; and Frances Mangrum, Secretary-Treasurer. This year was a very busy year. During the winter we sold popcorn and peanuts at ball games and in the spring we had three one-act plays to raise money for the banquet which was held in the cafeteria, in honor of the seniors. After the banquet, folk games were held in the gymnasium. During the late spring, our class again journeyed to the Centennial Park for a picnic.

We started our senior year with a new principal and two new teachers. Our class of 31 members eagerly received our American Beauty Rings in September. Our wonderful sponsor, Mr. Louis Stasaski, has remained with us through all four years. Our officers were: Betty Jean Meacham, President; James Percy, Vice-President; Horace Anderson, Secretary-Treasurer. There were four girls and eight boys from our class on the basketball teams. Among our activities were the publishing of our annual and making money for our senior trip which was a complete success.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of Hillsboro High School, in the year of 1953, being in sound body and possessing sound minds, leave our meager possessions to those we leave behind. To the Senior Class of '54 we leave the burden of the annual. To the faculty we leave peace and silence that will reign in our absence. To certain individuals, we leave the following:

I, Bobby Anderson, do hereby will my curly hair to Bill Liggett.
I, Horace Anderson, do hereby will my funny walk to Nelda Brown.
I, Hubert Carter, do hereby will my "Country Gentlemen" makings to Dan Mangrum.

We, Harvey Buttrey and Gerald Parham, will our ability to skip class and run the movie projector to J. W. Brown and Rice Anglin.

I, Thurell Daubenspeck, do hereby will my nickname "Djaughe" (pronounced Joe) to my brother, Wallace.

I, Carney Green, do hereby will my satchel for manager's use to J. T. Buchanan.

I, Gerald Hassell, do hereby will my pretty blue eyes to Billy Peach.

I, Billy Jones, do hereby leave my ball suit in the care of Shirley Mangrum.

I, Sam Moore, would hereby will Maxie, but I'll just have to take her with me.

I, James Peercy, do hereby will my blonde, wavy hair and ability to think quickly to Tommy Hall.

I, Paul Rainey, do hereby will my peroxidized hair to Jean Richardson.

I, Arvil Sullivan, do hereby will my Hillsboro girl friends to Bernice Pewitt.

I, Ewin Sullivan, do hereby will my ability to keep quiet to Joe Ray. Take it, Joe, it comes in handy.

I, Sydney Sullivan, do hereby will my brains to Roy McGaw.

I, Rodger Tomlinson, do hereby will my shyness and kingly ways to Grady Gaskill.

I, Martha Beard, do hereby will Ronnie Mayo to Jean Lunn.

I, June Boone, do hereby will my seat on the bus with Lewis to any boy who will take care of it.

I, Virginia Davidson, do hereby will my ability to look sweet and innocent to Yvonne Lampley.

I, Alice Forehand, do hereby will my everlasting patience to Wilma Buttrey.

I, Bettie Jean Hall, do hereby will my ability to make A's in shorthand to Lucille Daugherty.

I, Maxie Harris, do hereby will my ability to shoot goals to Kathleen Fisher.

I, Frances Mangrum, do hereby will my beautiful hair and smile that won the queen title to Phyllis Whittaker.

I, Doris Marlin, do hereby will my ability to talk a mile a minute to Jane McKee and Dimple Sullivan.

I, Doris Martin, do hereby will my friendliness to Annie Buttrey and Katherine Fox.

I, Betty Jean Meacham, do hereby will my ability to keep a steady boy friend to Rosalie Denton.

I, Jane Mills, do hereby will my ability to worry over a test to Claudine Stinson.

I, Willa B. Stinson, do hereby will my height to Margaret Fox.

I, Euzella Sullivan, do hereby will my beautiful figure to Geraldine Flair.

I, Joe Ann Sweeney, do hereby will my ball-playing ability to Nancy Parham.

I, Shirley Sullivan, do hereby will my beautiful hairstyle and pleasing personality to Catherine Sullivan.

Class Prophecy

As we start our journey over the United States in our Flying Saucer, "The Snoop-er Zoomer," in this year of 1973, we think back to the year of 1953, and wonder what has become of our class mates of Hillsboro High School.

As we fly around the coast of Oregon, we see BOBBY ANDERSON, who is now Captain of a new submarine called, "The Hillsborian," ready for a trip across the Pacific Ocean. One of the passengers of his ship is the Vice-President of the United States, HORACE ANDERSON, who is taking a long-needed rest.

Now we are over Hollywood, California. As we look out, we see one of the world's most famous models, FRANCES MANGRUM, getting ready for a trip to Nashville to model Duck Head Dungarees in Harvey's basement.

We have just overtaken the presidential plane, whose air-line hostesses are VIRGINIA DAVIDSON and SHIRLEY SULLIVAN. As we passed them, we turned on our Super-Dooper-Snooper and heard them fighting over the handsome pilot GERALD HASSELL. Oh yes! We almost forgot, the owner of the plane is BETTY MEACHAM, the first lady President, better known in private life as Mrs. Roy Anderson.

We enter Texas as night is coming on and spend the night in the home of Mrs. MARTHA BEARD Mayo and her two sets of twins, who gave us plenty of entertainment.

The next morning as we glide along drinking a Space Coke, we turn on our TV sets to see GERALD PARHAM, the star of his own show, "The Hillsboro Wild Animals."

As we glide over Nashville, Tennessee, we turn on our Super-Dooper ear phones and hear DORIS MARLIN singing at the Grand Ole Opry. About 20 miles out on the 100 Hi-way, we see a large department store owned and operated by ARVIL SULLIVAN. As we enter Fairview, we see BETTIE HALL, still an old maid, teaching at Fairview School; and although she's passed 25, she hasn't given up hope. Mrs. ALICE FOREHAND Daugherty has just arrived at her home in Fairview from the hospital with her fourth set of twins. It is nearing lunch time, so we stop in at a small restaurant where we see JUNE BOONE drying her tears, for she has stopped chasing Lewis Davidson after all these years and is making a career of working in her father's restaurant.

Sunday morning we stop at New Hope for church and find that HARVEY BUTTREY is still preaching there. After lunch we glide over Leiper's Fork where we see SAM MOORE and his wife MAXIE HARRIS, still honeymooning at their cabin near the creek.

As we fly over Hillsboro, we see BILLY JONES, President of the Hillsboro Third National Bank, talking to PAUL RAINEY, who after all these years is still janitor of the school. We also see JOE ANN SWEENEY, coach of the high school girls' basketball team.

While flying toward Franklin, we see RODGER TOMLINSON, driver of a bright red milk truck, stopped to deliver milk at the farm of Mrs. DORIS MARTIN Edwards. Visiting Mrs. Edwards is the well-known WILLA B. STINSON, who is the owner and operator of an exclusive beauty salon in Franklin.

As we zip along, we again turn on our Super-Dooper-Snooper and see that the circus is in town; and there is JANE MILLS, the most famous tight-rope walker in the world.

As we soar over the woody hills of Virginia, we see THURELL DAUBENSPECK, HUBERT CARTER, and CARNEY GREEN, now professional bootleggers, busy at work.

We are now entering Washington D. C. where we see JAMES PEERCY, one of the President's secret service men, entering the White House. Standing on the steps is SYDNEY SULLIVAN, the American Ambassador to Russia, concentrating on the conference he is to have with Stalin when he reaches Russia.

As we come to our last stop at New York, we go to Madison Square Garden to see the World's Heavy Weight Lady Rasser, EUZELLA SULLIVAN. As we are preparing to leave, we hear a strange noise and turn to see EWIN SULLIVAN, the great auctioneer, trying to sell the Brooklyn Bridge.
