Class History

We the Senior Class of Hillsboro High School are looking forward to many happy and successful years in the future, even though we do regret leaving the faculty and students whom we have learned to love.

We began our freshman year at Hillsboro in 1958 with thirty inexperienced students. Our officers for that year were Ralph Ivy, President; Sue Waller, Vice President; Josephine Waller, Secretary; Douglas Blankenship, Treasurer and Mr. E. J. Robinson as our sponsor.

In the fall of 1959 we began our sophomore year with twenty-nine students and the officers for that year were: Linda King, President; Jimmy McKee, Vice President; Marvin Harris, Secretary; Juanita Martin, Treasurer. That year we enjoyed a class hayride, a class trip to Montgomery Bell State Park and a Valentine Party. Our sponsor was Mrs. Ann Blackburn.

In 1960, our Junior year, we had twenty-six class members. Our officers for that year were: Larry Hunt, President; Wallace Whitehurst, Vice President; Cecil Rainey, Secretary; Linda King, Treasurer. Our play, "Good Gracious Grandma", was a success. The theme of our Banquet was "Oriental Gardens" and was given in honor of the Senior Class. Linda King and Roger Moore represented H. H. S. at Girls and Boys State. Our class hayride due to rain turned into a party but was a success. Mrs. Wynford Peterson and Mrs. Mary Jo Durham Flatt were our sponsors.

The Senior Class officers for this year are: Cecil Rainey, President; Jimmy McKee, Vice President; Richard Mealer, Secretary; Roger Moore, Treasurer. Activities for this year include a class skating party, the Junior-Senior Banquet and the Senior Play entitled "It's a Great Life." Valedictorian is Linda King with an average of 96.76 and Salutatorian is Sherry Peay with a 93.38 average. Our sponsors, Mrs. Wynford Peterson and Mr. Milton Lillard, will always be remembered for the patience and understanding they have given us. We are looking forward to graduation and striving to make our last year here at Hillsboro one that we will be proud of in years to come.

Class Prophecy

Once upon a midnight dreary,
While I pondered weak and weary
Over a quaint, almost forgotten annual of yore,
While I nodded nearly napping,
I turned the pages, silently laughing
At how the youth of my classmates of years before
Had completely vanished, forevermore.

There on the front page was smiling Larry,
A widow with ten kids he did marry.

Shirley and Evelyn, friends forevermore,
Still dwell together in Baltimore.

Cecil Rainey with curls galore, is now called baldy. His curls are gone and are no more.

Will Goins, nimble and lithe as a fairy,
Now dwells in Nigeria--She's a missionary.

Billy Johnson, forever whistling a tune,
Now lives in a sputnik, encircling the moon.

Paul Clark and Dan Griggs are both on the Beam,
They're the star players on the Globe Trotter Team

Jimmy McKee, Hillsboro's basketball star,
Has finally invented a motorless car.

Shirley Mealer surprised us all,
By reaching the height of ten feet tall.

Richard Mealer, popular with all
Is in college, pickled in alcohol.

Ann Holt, the uninhibited one,
Swims in ink each day for fun.

Bobby Walls, everyone's friend,
Has a permanent home at the federal pen.

Clifton Pewitt, the teacher's pet,
Lost two million dollars on a horse race bet.

Sherry, Linda, and Terry, all in a plane,
Were headed for Mars but landed in Maine.

Roger Moore, the Romeo,
Has married the Queen of Kokomo.

Sue and Juanita are more famous than stars,
They both help Stutts work on cars.

As I closed the annual with memories a-new,
I found the happy days at Hillsboro were more than a few.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1962, being of sound body, and no mind at all, do hereby make this last will and testament.

To the faculty we leave our love and sincere appreciation for all you have done for us and we hope our places will not be hard to fill.

To the Junior Class, we leave the good examples we have endeavored to maintain.

To the Sophomore Class and Freshman Class, we leave the aspiration to become Seniors.

To the Bus Drivers, Cafeteria Cooks, and Janitor, we leave our most sincere gratitude for the kindness and courtesty they have shown us during our high school days.

I, Paul Clark, do hereby will my height to Junior Morris, who needs it badly.

I, Willie Goins, do hereby will my bus seat to Bobby Waller.

I, Dan Griggs, do hereby will my ability to get along with Mrs. Peterson to Roy Clark.

I, Ann Holt, do hereby will my ability to aggravate Mr. Joines to Peggy Atkinson and Stella Wells.

I, Larry Hunt, do hereby will to anyone who needs it, my ability to make good grades when I want to.

I, Billy Johnson, do hereby will my ability to get along with Mrs. Dedman to Charlie Stevens.

I, Shirley Keys, do hereby will my plump knees to Mr. Greer.

I, Linda King, do hereby will my basketball suit to Mrs. Peterson.

I, Juanita Martain, do hereby will my ability to get along with Mrs. Peterson to Marilyn Morgan.

I, Jimmy McKee, with a just mind and a good cause, do hereby will Mrs. Peterson to anyone who wants her.

I, Richard Mealer, do hereby will with a sound mind my ability to make errors in typing to Nancy Cowell.

I, Shirley Mealer, do hereby will my typewriter to Sharon Hunt when she becomes a Junior.

I, Rodger Moore, do hereby will Seat Number 17 to Puckett so he can get along with the rest of the mob.

I, Sherry Peay, do hereby will my History book to any future senior who has enough scotch tape to put it together.

I, Terry Peay, not being of sound mind, do hereby will nothing to anybody because I will drastically need what little I have.

I, Clifton Pewitt, do hereby will my ability to play football to Delmar Howell.

I, Evelyn Pewitt, do hereby will this swingin school to two of the swingest kids at school, Bobby Buford and Mary Sadie Dorton to fight over.

I, Cecil Rainey, do hereby will nothing to no one because what I got I want to keep.

I, Daisy Turman, do hereby will my natural curly hair to Ann Holt.

I, June Turman, do hereby will my behavior to Margaret Humphrey.

I, Bobby Walls, do hereby will my brains to James Hargrove.
