The Senior Class
of
Hillsboro High School
Presents:

The Chieftain of 1966

Milton Lillard
Principal

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE TO THE SENIOR CLASS:

As your high school days draw to a close, each of you deserve the good wishes and congratulations of all. Each of you should realize that your education has just begun; that you have been supplied with the tools and experiences in school to prepare you to continue your learning.

Just as in school, life has many honors and awards. There are also many challenges and problems. May you always strive to represent Hillsboro High School well, so that we will always be proud of you.

It has been a pleasure to work with you during the past four years, and to see you grow and make many achievements. The faculty and student body join me in the sincere wish that all your days may be as happy as school days.

In Memoriam

Phillip G. Speer

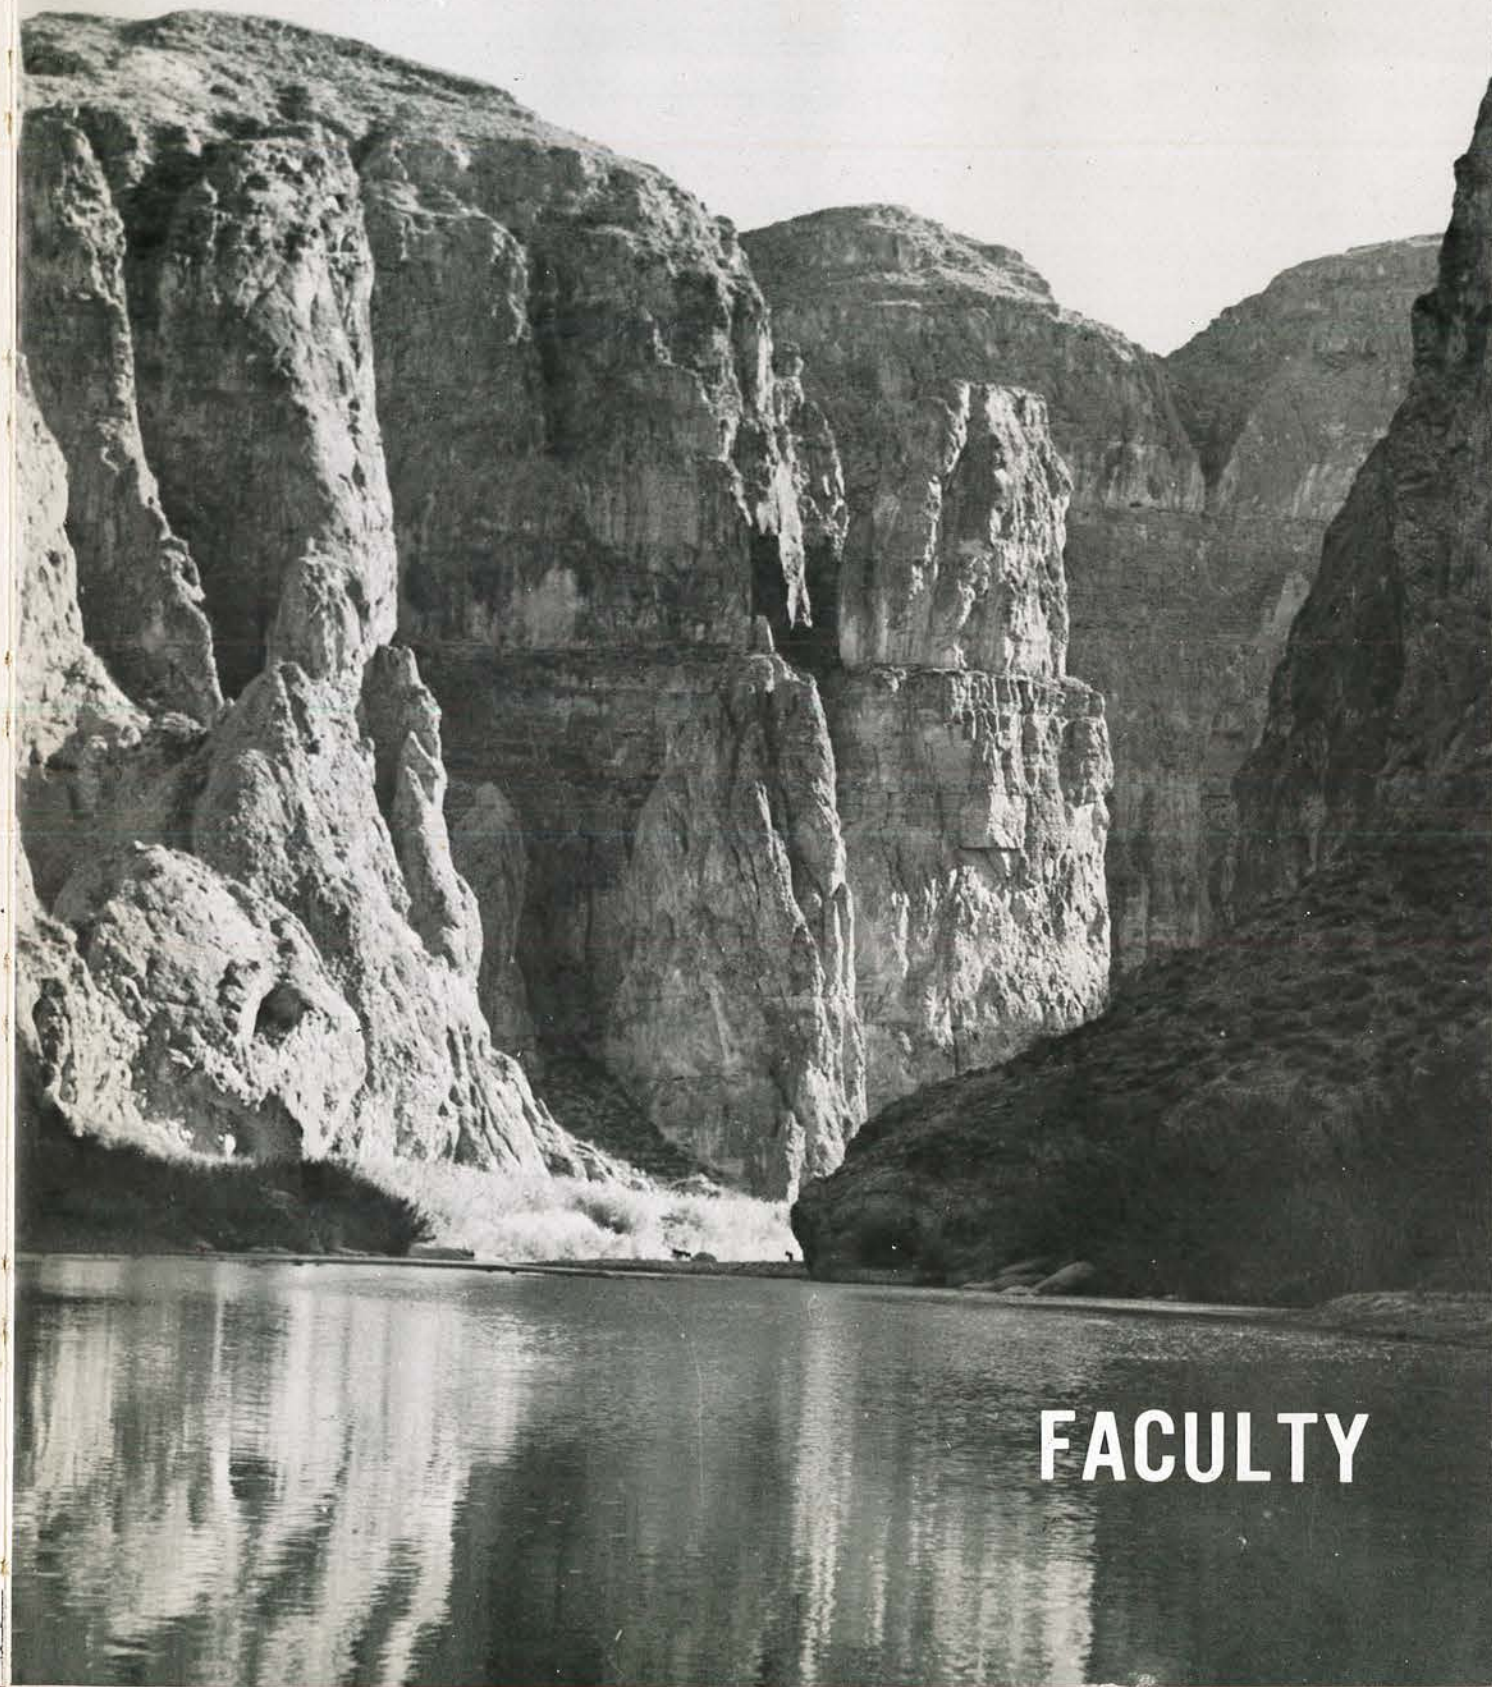

With love and devotion, we, the student body of Hillsboro High School, remember Mr. Phillip G. Speer.

Although he taught at Hillsboro for the short period of six months, within that time he gained the loyalty and affection of every student at Hillsboro High School.

Class History

GALE DeMOSS WALKER

As the 1961-62 school year appeared, it found 30 shy, misguided Freshmen. Mr. Robinson, our sponsor, raised our spirits and led us through the year. As our officers, we elected Tandy Wells, President, Jimmy Adams, Vice President, Paulette Sewell, Secretary, and Joe Howell, Treasurer. Our entries in the Halloween Carnival King and Queen Contest were Betty Sue King and Ted Griggs. We were properly welcomed into High School with Freshman Day.

After surviving that first year of high school we were ready for anything. Our sponsors were Coach Greer and Mrs. Dedman. Our class officers were Brenda Hargrove, President, John Heithcock, Vice President, Tandy Wells, Secretary, and Faye Wright, Treasurer. As our class activities, we had a hayride in the fall and when school came to a close we all went to Montgomery Bell Park. Carolyn Tomlin and Ronnie McCluskey were our candidates in the King and Queen contest. To help raise money for our contestants, we had a "Mother-Daughter" basketball game and gentlemen models modeling the latest in ladies fashions. We also sold refreshments to further our cause.

The 1964-65 school year found us ready and willing to fight this Junior year of high school. Miss Long and Mr. Walker were our sponsors. The first order of business was to elect the officers. They were Joe Howell, President, Carolyn Tomlin, Vice President, Faye Wright, Secretary, and Pam Hargrove, Treasurer. The class play "Mama's Baby Boy" was practically a booming success. We owe our success to Mrs. Blackburn. Our contestants in the King and Queen contest this year were Paulette Sewell and Joe Howell. To aid our contestants, we had two student-teachers basketball games. With Spring came the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom. Our theme was "Rendevouz With the Stars." Our delegate to Boys' State was Joe Howell and to Girls' State, Sandra Tomlin was our delegate.

This our Senior year is sad but full of activity. After prompt arrival of our class rings we had our pictures made. The officers of our class are Faye Wright, President, Leslie Smith, Vice President, Brenda Hargrove, Secretary, and Mickey Hargrove, Treasurer. We look forward with great pleasure to the Junior-Senior Prom but we also know that with the coming of Prom time also comes graduation time. We look forward to this with sad but grateful hearts knowing that we have achieved, for many, the goal of high school graduation.

Class Prophecy

While standing on the lawn of our mighty school,
I began to think of things we used to do.
Then I remembered the class of '66
And the way that class did get their kicks.

First there was James Anglin,
Real quiet and shy.
He now pilots a plane.
He's real fly guy.

Faye Wright, Sapphire you know,
Now tells jokes on The Ed Sullivan Show.
Paulette Sewell, bright as a dove,
Fell in deep with a guy named Love.

Ted Griggs, nobody's fool,
Is now the principal of Hillsboro School.
Gale DeMoss, a lot of fun,
Married a "Walker" by the name of John.

Elizabeth Howell and Janice Baker, two of a kind,
Got jobs in New York making turpentine.
Helen Hargrove, a real live daisy,
Found her a Bradford that turns her on crazy.

James Conner, a very rare specimen,
Is now in the zoo giving monkeyshine lessons.
Joyce Logan and Sandra Tomlin studied a lot,
But it did no good for they turned out sots.

Joe Howell and Leslie Smith, the go-steady guys,
They turned out bachelors, we don't know why.
Alton King, who was very masterful,
Now owns a publishing company--The Kingfield Chronicle.

Larry Howell and Eddie Beard got killed the other night,
By Negro demonstrators with whom they had a fight.
Pam Hargrove, who played it cool
Got her a rich man. Boy he's no fool.

Brenda Hargrove, always neat,
Has little McKees around her feet.
Mickey Hargrove and Ronnie McCluskey are still going steady
He says they'll get married whenever she's ready.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1966, do hereby make this our last will and testament.

To the principal and the faculty, we leave our sincere love and appreciation for all they have done for us during the past four years.

I, James Anglin, do hereby will all my cigarette butts to the Hillsboro Cigarette Club for smoking.

I, Janice Baker, do hereby will my History book back to Mrs. Dedman.

I, Eddie Wayne Beard, do hereby will my sideburns to Mr. Lillard because he likes them so well.

I, James Conner, do hereby will my ability to get along with Mrs. Dedman to Terry Anderson.

I, Ted Griggs, do hereby will my ability to smile once in a while to Mr. Warf.

I, Brenda Hargrove, do hereby will my ability to go steady to Sue Whidby.

I, Helen Hargrove, do hereby will my peroxide to all the girls at Hillsboro who believe that "Blondes have more fun."

I, Mickey Hargrove, do hereby will my ability to play basketball to Coach Greer.

I, Pam Hargrove, do hereby will my bleached blonde hair to the lady school teachers.

I, Elizabeth Howell, do hereby will my ability to love the Rolling Stones to Joyce Logan and Sandra Tomlin.

I, Joe Howell, do hereby will my ability to be a crooked car salesman to my little brother, Robert.

I, Larry Howell, do hereby will my ability to get along with all the teachers at Hillsboro High to Milton King and Leon Huffman.

I, Alton King, do hereby will my ability to be friends with Mrs. Dedman to Eugene Fountain.

I, Joyce Logan, do hereby will my ability to model dresses to Mrs. Hahan and Mrs. Dedman.

I, Paulette Sewell, do hereby will my ability to sleep in study hall to Butch Tomlin.

I, Leslie Smith, do hereby will my muscular build to Milton King, who needs it badly.

I, Sandra Tomlin, do hereby will my undying respect and admiration to the memory of Mr. Phillip G. Speer.

I, Gale Walker, do hereby will all of Mrs. Peterson's tests to the class of 1967.

I, Faye Wright, do hereby will my basketball suit to Mrs. Katherine Whitehurst.
